FRIDAY, JULY 5, 1895.

DR. COOK'S BREAK.

Minister Willis, by his spirited resenting of the introduction of party politics into the Fourth of July literary exercises, reflected credit upon his office. There has probably never been a representative of the United States here who would not have done the same thing, although it is not everyone who could have spoken so well when taken by surprise. There is no day in the Honolulu calendar when so general a reunion of all nationalities takes place as the Fourth of July. Speakers on that day have as a rule avoided saying anything to mar the harmony of the occasion. Dr. Cooke might have taken the hint given him in these columns the other day, and kept from repeating the slurs of his Y. M. C. A. lecture upon the Administration of his own country. Although the incident was naturally mortifying to the committee, and painful to many others, still it will doubtless have a good effect. Mr. Willis has put on record a high standard for Fourth of July exercises, and due precautions will henceforth be expected against any unpleasantness, such as that created on this occasion by the great Boston lecturer. That he is great the whole world acknowledges, but sometimes the smallest things are done by the greatest men.

OBSERVATIONS.

Mr. E. P. Dole will not need further introduction to the people of Honolulu. His oration on the Fourth proves that he is a valuable acquisition to the educated circles of this city.

Lord Rosebery's ministry, which has been running on a small majority for a long time, has at last fallen. Lord Salisbury is again given the helm of affairs, and is giving good places to the leading Liberal Unionists in the Cabinet. With Chamberlain and Goschen in a Conservative Cabinet, the split of their faction from the Liberals may be regarded as permanent.

THE LEGISLATURE.

BISHOP WILLIS LOSES $150 BY HIS OWN NEGLIGENCE.

Sheriffs and Deputies Will Soon be Empowered to Administer Oaths—A Bill to Prevent Foot Binding.

The Senate was called to order at 10 o'clock this morning and the usual routine business transacted.

Senator Wilcox gave notice of his intention to introduce an act to prevent foot binding.

The same Senator then introduced his bill relating to public schools. It provides that all public school children have at least four hours instruction per school day in the English language.

Senator Waterhouse of the Finance Committee to whom was referred the report of the Auditor-General reported a joint resolution that the President appoint a Commission of three to examine the system now in vogue in the Auditor's office and in their discretion report to the next legislature any Act or improvement in the system they may deem proper.

The resolution was adopted after some discussion on the powers and duties of the auditor-general. Senator Rice from the Printing Committee reported printed copies of the Acts relating to salaries and pay rolls and supplementary appropriations for the use of the government.

On the order of the day the bill empowering sheriffs and their deputies to administer oaths was passed on the third reading.

The resolution of the Special Committee on the Pali road authorizing the President to appoint a Commission of three civil engineers thereon was adopted and ordered engrossed.

The Finance Committee reported on the two finance bills presented by the Printing Committee.

The Senate then adjourned to Saturday at 10 a.m.

THE REPRESENTATIVES.

The House was called to order at 10 o'clock and after roll call, prayer and reading of the minutes. Rep. Kamaooha from Judiciary Committee reported on petition from South Kona relative to change in turn and place of holiday term of Circuit Court. Report table for bill.

Rep. McBryde from Finance Committee reported on the petition of Bishop Willis as follows: "Your committee to whom was referred petition of Alfred Willis, principal of Iolani school, beg leave to report that upon investigation they find that the Legislature of 1892 appropriated the sum of $1200 for the biennial period, for the payment of the twelve scholarships at Iolani school, of $50 each, per annum and that of the said amount $750 has been drawn. That during the month of March, 1894, the Minister of Finance of the Provisional Government caused to be inserted in certain newspapers of Honolulu a notice requesting that all parties holding claims against the government should present the same before a certain date. That Alfred Willis failed to present his claim as requested, and thereafter at the end of the biennial period the books of the government were closed. That your committee are upon due consideration of the opinion that Alfred Willis showed negligence in not presenting his claim as advertised for, and they therefore do not recommend the payment of the sum petitioned for."

Rep Thurston from Committee on Commerce reported on bill No. 7 relating to traveling agents. Report tabled for consideration with bill.

Rep Kamaooha read first time bill relating to term of Circuit Court. Ordered printed.

Rep Robertson read first time bill to permit withdrawal of kerosene oil under certain circumstances. Ordered printed.

Winston gave notice of the introduction of a bill relating to diseases of animals.

The House then took a recess until 1:30 p. m.

A Pleasant Affair.

A few of the members of the Healan Boat Club gave a social dance last evening at their new boat house. About fifty couples were present. Luncheon was served about midnight, and a program of twenty numbers was danced before the party left for their several homes.

There is no place in Honolulu better adapted for these "small and early" affairs than the Healan boathouse; the situation is delightful and the arrangements for the comfort of guests complete in every detail.

Timely Topics

June 26, 1895.

INTO the soft, warm light of the drawing-room the heavy odors from the conservatory floated and filled the place as with a fog of flowers.

Beneath the crystal chandelier, which shone in the mellow light as a suspended rainbow in an atmosphere of gold, stood a fair, pale girl, erect, imperious, beautiful.

Shrinking away into the shadows was the object of it. It was a young man in a red waistcoat, with other things to match.

He had told her of his love for her, of his devotion to her; of his worship, of the dear desire of his heart to make her his own, and in the midst of it she stopped him suddenly.

"Enough," she exclaimed. "Enough! I will not listen to another word."

"Hear me out," he pleaded.

"Never," she laughed, scornfully, "but I will take great pleasure in seeing you out," and the shadows closed around that shrinking youth like the deadly arms of the octopus.

Slowly and sadly he mounted his wheel and rode forth into the cold, cold world of this city. In spite of our Paradise-of-the-Pacific climate it had been a cold day for him and he could not get rid of a crushed-strawberry-and-ice-cream feeling in the region of his heart which would not away.

Passing the Hawaiian Hardware Company's store the brilliant scintillations from the electric globes on the Monarch bicycle in their window attracted his attention and like an electric flash the thought entered his mind, "I wonder if she is mad because I never asked her to take a bicycle ride with me. I'll do it if it takes my last dollar." Without a second's hesitation he walked into the store and ordered a Monarch ladies' wheel sent to her house, first tying his card to it.

That same evening he received a polite note asking him to call again. He went and two minutes sufficed to make him the happiest man in Honolulu, the cause of the whole trouble being that the young lady suspected him of taking other girls out bicycle riding and was jealous accordingly. There will be another wedding in Honolulu in a few weeks.

While we are on the subject of girls and wheels we will state that we are prepared to furnish bicycles enough, for every engaged girl in Honolulu or even for every girl who wants to be engaged.

Ladies and misses are cordially invited to call at the store and examine the Monarch wheels, for which we are sole agents for the Hawaiian Islands.
